

Looting in Iraq

Dear Editor,

I liked your article very much about the Looting of Iraq.. Surprising indeed that you hear all the media coverage about Iraq yet they never seem to want to inform us of the theft and plundering by American agents secretly selling ancient Babylonian artefacts to the highest bidders and on internet auction sites. As a Christian myself, I feel that Iraq is not just part of the Muslim heritage, but also part of the heritage of my own religion, and generally part of the heritage of the world.. who was it that said, "Iraq was the cradle of civilisation?"
